COSPLAY COMPETITION RULES

SkasdiCon Competition Rules

- You must be Native American to enter the Cosplay Competition.
 - Citizenship cards will need to be provided to enter the competition.
- Family friendly.
- No illusion of nudity.
- No recording of copyrighted materials unless noted otherwise.
- No cultural appropriation costumes.

Costume Props Policy

No functional props or weapons are allowed at SkasdiCon. Simulated or costume weapons are allowed as a part of your costume, subject to prior approval by the registration desk and compliance with the following:

All costume props and weapons must be inspected at the registration desk. Registration desk will be located on the 1st floor lobby.

- All costume props and weapons must conform to state and federal law.
- Projectile costume props and weapons must be rendered inoperable.
- Functional (real) arrows must have their tips removed and be bundled and zip-tied to a quiver.
- Costume swords must be tied to your costume in such a way that they can't be drawn.
- Costumes featuring stilts must be approved at the reception desk.
- All props will be checked at registration desk located in the 1st floor lobby.

At certain times, due to crowds and safety issues, people in oversized costumes may be asked to leave the Ballroom.

After your costume props have been checked, they will be tagged by registration, and you will be given a wristband to wear to designate that your props have been checked.

Event Staff will escort you to the registration desk for inspection if your costume prop is not tagged.

All costume props and weapons must be inspected at the registration desk located on the 1st floor lobby.

If you do not want to have your costume props inspected or tagged, or if you are not willing to comply with these policies, please do not bring your costume weapons to SkasdiCon.

*As a common courtesy to our cosplayers, please ask consent before touching or taking a picture. It's good manners.
